

Project Engineer

Successful candidates will be responsible for the strategic project management of new and existing products including product design and development.

Primary Responsibilities

- Perform project management duties utilizing Advanced Product Quality Planning (APQP) guidelines
- Product design and development
- Prepare APQP documentation (e.g., DFMEA, process flow chart, PFMEA, and control plan)
- Create and perform design of experiments (DOE)
- Generate product improvements and/or cost reductions
- Prepare cost calculations including feasibility reviews
- Assist sales and/or quality with design issues
- Prepare bills of material (BOM) and/or routings
- Prepare and process engineering change requests (ECR's)
- Prepare and/or modify engineering models/drawings or specifications
- Develop and complete business plan objectives within designated timelines
- Ensures compliance with the Quality System requirements

Position Requirements

- Bachelor degree in manufacturing, mechanical or industrial engineering degree, or equivalent
- Strong mathematical background
- Ability to read and interpret product, tool, customer, and machine prints
- Knowledge of GD&T, APQP & Solidworks
- Ability to work in a team environment
- Project management, problem solving and computer skills

We offer a competitive salary plus a full range of benefits including medical, dental, disability, life, flexible spending accounts, 401(k), educational reimbursement, and more. ASYST Technologies LLC is an Equal Opportunity Employer.